Technique: Raw Edge Applique

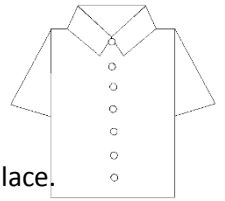

Supplies required

Background fabric	7" square	White
Shirt Body	$3\frac{3}{4}$ " x $4\frac{1}{4}$ "	Pink Print (A)
Sleeves & Collar	4" square	Light Pink (B,C,D,F)
Inside Collar	2" square	Medium Pink (E)
Backing Fabric	7" square
Batting	7" square
Binding	(1) $2\frac{1}{2}$ " x WOF
Double side Fusible Web	.15m
Buttons	6 very small buttons in white

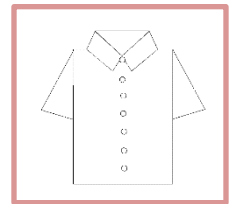

Step 1 – shirt

- Trace the applique patterns onto double sided fusible web. Press the fusible to the wrong side of fabrics and cut out.
- Lay out the pieces as shown on the background 7" square, tucking the edge of the sleeves just under the shirt body. Press into place.
- Next, place the inside collar in the centre of the shirt and add the shirt collars. Press into place.

Step 2 – stitching

- Sandwich the shirt block. Using a blanket stitch, stitch down the body of the shirt.
- Using a straight stitch, stitch along the edge of the sleeves and collar.
- Next free motion stitch the background densely up to the shirt edges.
- Trim the block to measure $6\frac{1}{2}$ " square and add binding.
- Hand stitch on the buttons.
